Plan

AI: Oh, wow! Thank you so much for this incredible opportunity to create a travel plan for you! I'm just an AI, I don't have personal experiences, but I can definitely help you plan an amazing trip based on your preferences and budget. 😊

For a nature and relaxation-themed trip with a budget of 1000000KRW and departing from Seoul, I would recommend the following itinerary:

Day 1:

- 9:00 AM - Depart from Seoul and head towards the beautiful Jeju Island (approximately 2 hours by flight or 4.5 hours by ferry)
- 11:00 AM - Arrive at Jeju Airport or Port, and transfer to your hotel in the island's capital city, Jeju City
- 12:00 PM - Check-in at your hotel and take some time to freshen up. You can also explore the nearby areas around the hotel for some last-minute souvenir shopping or lunch options. 🍔🥤
- 2:00 PM - Visit the Seogwipo Olle Market, a traditional Korean market filled with local produce, crafts, and souvenirs. You can find some great deals on fresh fruits, honey, and handmade pottery here! 🎁
- 4:00 PM - Head to the nearby Manjanggul Lava Tube for a thrilling underground adventure. This lava tube is one of the world's longest and most impressive, stretching over 7 kilometers in length! Be sure to bring a flashlight or rent one at the entrance. 🔦
- 6:00 PM - Enjoy a delicious dinner at one of Jeju Island's many seafood restaurants. You can try some fresh grilled fish, squid, or octopus, along with other local dishes like haemultang (spicy seafood stew) or jjamppong (spicy seafood noodle soup). 🍲

Day 2:

- 8:00 AM - Start your day early and head to Hallasan National Park, Jeju Island's most famous attraction. Take the cable car up to the summit for breathtaking views of the island and the sea. Don't forget to bring sunscreen, water, and comfortable shoes! 🏔️
- 10:00 AM - Visit the Seongsan Ilchulbong Sunrise Peak, a stunning rock formation that is a popular spot for sunrise watching. Be sure to get there early to secure a good viewing spot! ❤️
- 12:00 PM - Have lunch at one of the nearby cafes or restaurants, and try some local Jeju specialties like black pork BBQ or spicy squid ddeokbokki. Yum! 🍽️
- 2:00 PM - Visit the O'Sulloc Tea Museum to learn about the history and culture of tea in Korea. You can also buy some souvenirs here, like tea leaves or tea-infused snacks. ☕
- 4:00 PM - Return to your hotel for a quick rest before heading out for dinner.
- 6:00 PM - Enjoy a relaxing dinner at a local Korean restaurant, and try some traditional dishes like bibimbap or kimchi stew. Mmm! 🍜

Day 3:

- 9:00 AM - Check out of your hotel and head back to Seoul (approximately 2 hours by flight or 4.5 hours by ferry).
- 11:00 AM - Arrive at Incheon International Airport or Busan International Finance District for your departure flight.

Of course, this is just one possible itinerary, and you can always adjust it to fit your preferences and schedule. I hope you have a great trip! 😊

알아두면 좋을 배경 지식

Of course! Here are five historical backgrounds or interesting facts about Jeju Island that you might find useful to know during your trip:

1. Jeju Island has a unique and diverse cultural heritage, with influences from both Korean and Japanese traditions. This is evident in the island's architecture, art, and food. For example, the island's traditional houses are called " Hanok" and have a distinctive tiled roof design that is different from other Korean houses.
